

Sardine Lake Resort

Sardine Lake Resort

In the late 1800's, a miner's mule named "Sardine" tumbled into what was then called "Emerald Lake". This prompted miners to rename the lake:

"Sardine Lake"

In 1936 Mr. George Browning came here suffering from rheumatoid arthritis. It was his dream, during the Great Depression, to build a resort at Sardine Lake. With the help of his wife, Audrey, and her father Tom Taylor, his dream was realized in 1941.

The resort was later owned and operated by their daughter, Dorothy and her husband Chandler Hunt. It is now run by granddaughter Jan Hunt Boucher and grandson Thomas Browning Hunt. Staff is: Chef Justin Collins, Sous Chef Fred Greenspan, Cassidy Harvey, Sara Ludwig, Riata Tidwell, Nick Bradley, Patti Stringer, Rojo Nevarez and Berenice Guarrero, Michelle Haselton, Maria Reyes, Jessica Baiker McMahan, Ramon Nevarez and Antonio Nevarez.

As a family and friends run operation, we take pride in continuing George and Audrey's vision here at Sardine Lake Resort.
